testimony began with the introthe room traders declared that the ter and Steams as joint owners of short interest had been cut down to short interest had been cut down to small proportions.

"We bullsmars still in the field."

The lease is stated to have been grantd at the direction of the Common ouncil, which passed a resolution comsiling the city officers to excute to cooker and Stearns, a lease of easeent for light and air purposes new the post-office building.
This resolution was veloed by the syor for two reasons, first, that if any future time the city should detee to sell the City Hall property it could be hampered by this encumands and, second, that it would preat the construction of an addition to City Hall.

Torts had put up a certain industrial stock about four points.

"But there is not much left for you to feed on," replied a bearish trader.

"Oh, yes, there is. The industrial patch hasn't been half worked yet. We are getting into that now."

The last remark referred more particularly to the unexpected activity in Rubber Goods stock, which took a strenuous upward swing on heavy purchases. U. S. Rubber was sympatheti-
